Schedule your events today, and get ready to participate in one of the most anticipated set launches in Magic™ history!

Event Features

- The Magic: The Gathering® Trading Card Game is returning to Ravnica—the most beloved and exciting plane in Magic’s history—and the Guilds vying for control of the city-wide plane await the legions of anxious players that will get their chance to champion those Guilds. The Return to Ravnica™ League is designed specifically to help you meet your customers’ desire for guild game play!

- Leagues are an exciting opportunity to attract Magic players to your store for weekly, casual play. League events are easy to schedule and run with Wizards Event Reporter, and may be scheduled any time during the event date window listed above.
- League events are perfect for Gateway-level stores looking to encourage growth in the local player community, and help meet their WPN Core- or Advanced-level benchmarks.

- The first Return to Ravnica League event date coincides with the first Friday Night Magic (FNM) of the month. Core and Advanced locations can take advantage of this and run their league along with their FNM events.

- Optional League rules (included with the kit) provide instructions for the use of guild badges and guild symbol stickers for players to track their progress.

- Suggested League Play:
 - Sealed Deck (format details can be found here)
 - Player are allowed up to three matches per week

- Sign up to run a Return to Ravnica League, and Wizards will provide kit support for two leagues, PLUS a marketing kit you can use all season long!
